

To play a wrong note
is insignificant;
to play
without passion is inexcusable.

notes from sherri

Every day that I get to tell someone about this group, I just keep telling everyone "these women ore gold." And I mean that. I see it in how you care for each other, how easily we laugh with each other, and when it's time to get serious about words, music, and meaning, you deliver. I suggested to the Board that we arrange a group movie night to view "The Singing Revolution" (we're working on that). This documentary will astound you with the power of simple people coming together to sing, and what that can do for the people & their country. (Spoiler alert: it involves Estonia and the fall of the USSR.) NEVER doubt what a difference YOU - each one of you - makes to this group, and to the world... and to me.

Our 9/21 rehearsal: Be ready to sing at 5:45 with warm ups and we'll start at 5:55

- I am Resilient (Shawna)
- They May Tell You (Shawna)
- There's Still My Joy
- When You Believe
- Where the Light Begins
- Go Where I Send Thee
- A Million Dreams
- Night of Silence

A reminder that Shawna is working on the songs that were pulled from the last concert but we'll be singing in the June concert. They're a bit challenging, so please give them listening time!

I'm posting the website info again below. Please log in to the member's page to work on this week's pieces - especially the Hebrew pronunciation audio link for "When You Believe".
