

notes from sherri

Whew! What an amazing rehearsal! A LOT of really good work – and energy. Thank you all for so much extra (long!) effort and still ending with smiles!!

We’ve got FOUR rehearsals left until our Tech Rehearsal, so it’s time to concentrate on making music. PLEASE use those parts recordings to lock in your notes so we can look up and watch for tempo and dynamic shifts.

I’ve made and put up the parts recordings for “When You Believe” – sorry for the lateness, but hopefully late is better than never. IF anyone thinks another sectional on 11/16 would be beneficial (where we can work on parts), please let me know at our next rehearsal and we’ll see if the church is available.

Happy National Chocolate Day!

Our Nov 2 rehearsal:

5:45pm – start with warm-ups and then:

- Be the Light
- Feminist Holiday Songbook
- A Million Dreams
- Where the Light Begins
- Loosin Yelav
- When You Believe
- Night of Silence*

For Night of Silence, let’s repeat verse 1 after verse 3 (while the Sopranos & audience sing Silent Night)

4 Rehearsals Until our Tech Rehearsal!

1. If you have battery candles that you can add to the stage area, please put your name on them and bring them to the dress rehearsal.
2. Don your gay apparel! Bring your festive wear for Mrs. Claus, Fem Holiday Songbook & Have Yourself a Merry Xmas!
3. If you know someone who’d be willing to be “Carol, the Ancient Yuletide Troll”, please let me know. I have a robe & headwreath. They’ll need to be at dress rehearsal as well as the performance.
4. We need three poster bearers who can walk on (and off) with the Georgia O’Keeffe art. Again, coming to dress rehearsal as well as performance.

SPREAD the word and talk about the concert. December weekends fill up quickly. NOW is the time to get the word out. Post wildly on social media. Put the flyers up in work, school, coffee shops & schools.
