

Do you believe music can ignite change?

Do you long to sing with heart, harmony, and a mission that matters?

Join our progressive chorus—where bold voices blend in unity, singing songs of equality, justice, peace, and love. From civil rights anthems to traditional, modern, ethnic, and eclectic songs, we raise more than just our voices—we raise awareness, compassion, and community. Whether you're a shower soloist or seasoned soprano, if you carry a tune and care deeply, you belong with us.

We Are:

- Our women's choir is gender-affirming and welcomes all who identify as women, including transgender women, and non-binary individuals who feel comfortable in a treble choir setting
- Singing for causes that matter: civil rights, climate justice, equality, peace, love
- Performing powerful, moving music that uplifts, inspires, and sometimes laughs

You'll Experience:

- Rehearsals full of joy, purpose, and harmony
- Performances that make an impact and contribute to a cause
- A chance to be part of something bigger—a voice for change

Come sing with us, your voice matters!

WHERE: St. Paul's Episcopal Church
900 Normal Rd, DeKalb

WHEN: Rehearsals: Sundays, 5:45-8pm

No audition required. Just bring your voice and your values.

Because when women sing together, the world listens.

Sing Loud. Stand Proud.

Please note that while we rehearse and perform in churches (and are very grateful for their generosity and openness), we are not affiliated with any faith or religion.
